

MONEY FOR MOSHER'S VICTIMS

Lincoln Gas Stock Awarded to the Capital National Receiver.

JUDGE HALL'S INTERESTING DECISION

Will Increase the Assets of the Wrecked Institution by Nearly One Million Dollars—One Scheme of the Con- vict Miscarries.

LINCOLN, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—In the district court this morning Judge Hall entered up an order releasing from the operation of the injunction obtained by the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Galva, Ill., the 4,875 shares of stock, par value $100,000, in the Lincoln Gas Company, which was assigned to the bank examiner by Cashier Outcalt of the defunct Capital National bank just after the bank went under. Up to this morning Receiver Hayden of the broken bank had been unable to obtain possession of this stock. Today the court ordered the gas company to do everything necessary to put the stock in his hands, and to pay over to him the dividends that had accrued since the bank's failure. It is specifically stated in the order that it only refers to stock regularly assigned to Hayden. This injunction was secured just after the failure, and prevented the transfer of the stock of Mosher in the gas company. It also in the Farmers and Merchants Bank company, as well as in the penitentiary contract now held in the name of William Morgan. As this injunction still holds, the action of the Galva bank brings the whole matter into court. Parties supposed to be in possession of the Mosher stock will be required to show how they came by it. Attorneys seem to be generally agreed that if they can show legitimate possession of the stock, holding it in good faith, that there is nothing to prevent the transfer of all of it.

HEAVY FORECLOSURE SUIT. A foreclosure suit involving over $100,000 worth of mortgage liens against the Kendall & Smith Woodlawn property is being tried by Judge Stroobant in the district court. A mortgage for $45,000, being the suit. A mortgage for $10,000, held by the Lottidge heirs, who claim that defendants are not entitled to show how they came by it. A mortgage for $2,000 is held by the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance company, one of $10,000 by J. W. Maffey, one of $10,000 by the Newport Savings bank, and one of $5,000 each by the Connecticut River and National banks.

IN THE DIVORCE COURT. According to the petition for divorce filed today by Lola R. Frey, her defendant husband, Edward W. Frey, in June last drew a revolver and threatened to kill her. She also alleges that at no time since their marriage at Windsor, Canada, in 1893, has he supported her, and that he has also developed since that time into an habitual drunkard. Mrs. Frey does not ask for alimony, nor does she seek the restoration of her maiden name.

Minnie B. Knapp, formerly a telegraph operator living in Lincoln, Neb., claiming that city, prays the court for a legal separation from her husband, Bert H. Knapp. Lincoln people recall the fact that some months since Mrs. Knapp returned to the city in a touring car, and freely circulated the story that her husband had been consorting with "sensual acquaintances of improper characters." It is alleged, so excited her that she "needed to get out of the city." Her offending husband and thrust the cold muzzle of a revolver under his nose. In her petition Mrs. Knapp says she has lived in Lincoln six years and has married her defendant at Council Bluffs on the 22nd day of June, 1891. She also alleges that he abandoned her July 1st last and has since neglected to provide for her and their 14-month-old child. She asks for the custody of the infant and a restoration to her maiden name of Minnie B. Tibbets.

JOBBERS ON A JAUNT. It is the intention of the excursion party of Lincoln jobbers who left last night on the Burlington to go direct to Billings, Mont., and visit every point in the Black Hills and beyond on the line of the road before they return. They are provided with a large quantity of advertising matter for distribution where it will do the most good for the state and the city of Lincoln.

LINCOLN BREVITIES. Detective Malone arrived this afternoon from Texas. He had in charge Sherman De Haas, the man after whom he went, and who was wanted on a charge of kidnaping Albert Bros. of having disposed of mortgaged property. In Texas De Haas was quite anxious to settle the matter, but he is now in the city jail and he will have his hearing tomorrow morning.

The supreme court will meet tomorrow and proceed with the consideration of a large number of cases. The city jail has been crowded with prisoners. Deputy Sheriff O'Shea left this morning for South Omaha. His object is to bring back Bud Clark, who has been wanted in this vicinity for some time. This is the man who once walked out of the city jail and gave O'Shea a long chase. A full account of his subsequent capture and attendant excitement at the time appeared in The Bee.

At the request of the Omaha police, Officer Pound this morning arrested a young Hebrew named Max H. Freeman. He has been working for a week or so in a fur store at the corner of Twelfth and N streets. He was charged with having failed to pay a board bill in Omaha. Complaint came from the Mercer hotel, Omaha. Freeman admitted in Lincoln that he owed two days board at the Mercer. He said he had been staying at a boarding house which "moved away from him," and he was about $40 behind. He then went to the Mercer and subsequently came to Lincoln for work. Intelligence was this afternoon received from Omaha that parties who had caused Freeman's arrest declined to put up his bond for $100,000 in Lincoln. Upon receipt of this information Chief Cooper discharged Freeman at once.

There was considerable mild profanity indulged in this morning at the county treasurer's office, in connection with a contract at the late election. The county commissioners, according to their usual practice, deducted their delinquent taxes from their $5 claims. Hence the row.

The council tonight canvassed the vote on the $200,000 bonds for a viaduct on North Ninth street, which proposition was voted on at the general election, and declared in their favor. The returns of the vote are $26,000 in favor of the proposition and $14,000 in favor of the viaduct. The matter was to have been heard in district court tomorrow, but was continued until December 15. Mr. Waggoner gave a reporter to understand that a line would be built into Beatrice, to comply with the contract above referred to.

York Boy Severely Hurt. YORK, Neb., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—Master Abe Compton, a young boy, who resides with his parents in North York, met with what might have resulted in a serious accident yesterday. He had been in the habit of playing around the B. & M. depot and freight yards and boarding trains. Yesterday as he was taking his usual ride on a freight train his foot was caught under the wheels and very badly crushed. Looking horses were sold at a sheriff's sale on the streets today. It is a noticeable fact that the price of animals of this kind have decreased in value to a large extent in this country. Horses that would have formerly brought in the region of $75 were sold at one's own price. In fact, it was difficult to obtain a bidder at all. All that were sold were at very low prices.

Misfortune of a Farmer. SUPERIOR, Nov. 19.—(Special.)—A barn, belonging to Don L. Little, containing a herd of horses, one cow, some hogs, and a number of farming implements, burned this morning. It is believed to be the work of an incendiary, as this is the third fire which has been started here during the past few weeks, and what looks strange is the fact that the barn was discovered at 3 o'clock Sunday morning, exactly two weeks apart. The loss falls very heavily upon Mr. Little, as he had all in the barn, with no insurance.

Two Farmers Shaken Up. ST. PAUL, Neb., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—T. McDonald and W. Little, living about eight miles north of town, were the victims of a serious runaway this afternoon, in which their buggy was upset. W. L. Little sustained a broken collarbone and other injuries. McDonald escaped with some severe scratches on his head.

Small Blaze at Beatrice. BEATRICE, Nov. 19.—(Special Telegram.)—A small house on South Sixth street was partially destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning, causing a loss of about $150. A defective fire is given as the cause.

The great leavening power of Dr. Price's Baking Powder and its freedom from adulterants gives it the endorsement of authorities on food products.

SUPPLIES ARE ROLLING IN. State Association Doing Much to Prevent Starvation in Western Counties. The Nebraska State Relief association is now hard at work in ministering to the relief of the unfortunate settlers in various portions of the state who have become objects of charity through a total loss of their crops from the unprecedented drought of the past season. Cheering reports are coming in from the larger and more fortunate cities of the state, and organizations are being formed to collect clothing, food supplies and money from those who can spare a portion of their savings. An appeal went out from some of the religious associations not long ago to the effect that they would be glad to have their members contribute to the relief of the sufferers, and during the past several days the commission has received about twenty car loads of supplies, which are now being judiciously distributed among the needy.

The work of distributing the contributions is placed in the hands of honest and capable agents, who promptly account for everything that passes through their hands. The commission has received appeals from several hundred settlers, and in many instances it has been enabled to furnish instant relief. A good many more cases are being investigated, and it is hoped that they will be supplied without further delay.

The local branch of the state organization is hard at work, and President W. N. Nason has appointed a committee of five, who will act as assistants and divide the wards into suitable districts, so that the residents may be canvassed for food, clothing and anything that they have a mind to contribute. The commission needs workers with commendable zeal, and the chairman of the ward committees appointed by the president are as follows:

First Ward—Rev. A. W. MacNab, 1514 South Tenth street, pastor St. Matthias' church, Tenth and Williams streets. Second Ward—Pastor of Cassier Methodist Episcopal church, 1918 South Twentieth street. Third Ward—Charles W. Savidge, 723 South Twenty-fifth street, pastor People's church, 418 North Eighteenth street. Fourth Ward—Rev. J. T. Duryea, 2402 Cass street, pastor First Congregational church, 124 Davenport street.

Fifth Ward—Rev. P. H. Sanderson, pastor Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, 2023 Binney street. Sixth Ward—Rev. W. K. Beas, pastor Seward Street Methodist Episcopal church, 2114 Mason street. Seventh Ward—Rev. John T. Gordon, 1128 South Thirty-first street, Westminster Presbyterian church, 1002 South Twenty-ninth street. Eighth Ward—Rev. Frank Crane, 2023 Burt street, First Methodist Episcopal church, Twentieth and Davenport streets. Ninth Ward—Rev. Charles G. Sterling, Forty-second and Nicholas streets, pastor of Lowe Avenue Presbyterian church, Fortieth and Nicholas streets, north half ward. Tenth Ward—Rev. S. Wright Butler, 3012 Mason street, pastor St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, south half ward. South Omaha—Rev. Charles N. Dawson, First Methodist Episcopal church.

The commission needs workers to collect the contributions, and will ask some of the transfer companies to assist them. The railroad and express companies have agreed to transport the supplies free of charge to any part of the state. None of the officers or directors of the commission will receive a cent for their labors, and they feel that they should receive no profit response to their efforts to assist the deserving poor.

JAPAN POLITELY RECEIVED

China Must Put Up the White Flag Before Hostilities Can Cease.

MAY NEED AMERICA'S SERVICES LATER

Likelihood that the President Will Head Off a Resolution of Inquiry by Telling the Whole Story in His Annual Message.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The China-Japan incident, so far as the United States' offer of mediation is concerned, is considered closed for the present by those in a position to understand the conditions. It is said that the Chinese and Japanese negotiations there is only negative information to the effect that no positive answer to the American suggestion of mediation has been received. While this is believed to be literally true so far as Japan's answering by a positive acceptance or declination of the suggestion, yet those well informed on the subject say Japan has made her position clear to this government in such a way as to show that certain definite conditions offer to be met on certain definite conditions. It is said that Japan could state this position with such expressions of good will for the kindly motives of the United States and such hopes that the time might come in the future when the good offices of this country would be most acceptable that it would leave no cause for friction, but would rather increase the good feeling between Japan and this country.

It is believed that the essential condition on which Japan would consent to any mediation is that China will raise the white flag of truce, the emblem recognized the world over as an indication that a contestant wants to treat for terms of peace. China has not yet exacted this from the Japanese, and the latter are not disposed to consider a roundabout offer which overlooks the recognized international emblem of the white flag.

The statement was made in congressional circles today that President Cleveland's coming message to congress would throw light on the China-Japan incident. It would forestall any resolutions of inquiry. As the secretary of state, unlike other cabinet officers, makes no annual report to congress, the president's message is the only statement he has made in some time. It is concluded that Mr. Cleveland will make clear the position of this government. Up to the present time there has been no official information on the subject, and the State department has not even stated officially that negotiations with China and Japan are in progress.

Those Who Go There Must Have Knowledge and Some Means. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Very timely, in view of the great rush of prospectors from all quarters of the globe to the newly discovered gold mines of Australia, is an exhaustive report to the State department, just published, from United States Consul General Maratta, at Melbourne. He has been besieged with letters of inquiry from residents of California, Texas, and other western mining states, asking his advice about going to Australia, and takes this method of answering inquiries. The report is very instructive and goes so far into detail as to include a set of very practical suggestions, drawn up by the Australian minister, to miners, for the guidance of people unaccustomed to the work, showing where and how it is to be looked for, and to aid those miners who want to get a little gold for subsistence as quickly as possible in easily worked territory. The gist of the report is in the following paragraph:

"There is a good opportunity here for miners from the United States, well provided with the best methods of obtaining gold, but it is absolutely necessary that they come well provided with both funds and experience; with sufficient capital to last for at least six months, irrespective of what gold they may obtain. The machinery and appliances in vogue here are not altogether the latest and best, but they are of good quality, and of some of our large manufacturers, of mining machinery and appliances would send representatives out to these colonies; it would repay them, in my opinion."

Wonderful Properties of the Kola Nut. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The State department has been calling upon United States consuls in Africa for information respecting the marvelous kola nut, which, by its peculiar properties, will, if used in a certain way, enable the African negroes to make long journeys, bearing enormous loads, under tropical sun and across difficult country, without food. Cases authentically reported prove that an adult may carry a 15-pound bag of coffee four leagues by chewing a single nut slowly. Robert P. Foster, United States consul at Sierra Leone, Africa, has sent in the first report on the subject, treating of the means of growing and preparing the nut.

Hayden Bros. He says that the natives eat the nuts in the early morning, as they are not so full of ordinary food while traveling, and in the evening to induce sleep. Altogether, they consider that the kola nut is a human stimulant derived from the consumption of kola, say a single nut morning and evening.

Making Turkish Rugs in Belgium. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Turkish rugs are being made in considerable numbers in Belgium, according to United States Consul Roosevelt at Brussels, who, in an interesting report to the State department, describes the method of manufacture and the conditions under which one of the oldest industries of Belgium is carried on. The industry has been afforded to many young persons between the ages of 14 and 20 years, and the wages are $2.50 per day, and the work is very light. The letter necessarily lives in the simplest form, their food consisting of coffee and bread, and they are without means and tables, and on rare occasions a bit of meat.

Diamond Cutters Coming to America. WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—A report from the commissioner of immigration at New York states that twenty-six diamond polishers arrived there from Amsterdam. After examination they were permitted to land. The statement also made that of the 10,000 diamond cutters in Holland fully 20,000 are Belgians, and many of them are coming to the United States, the inference being that the diamond cutting industry is being transferred from Amsterdam to New York and Chicago.
